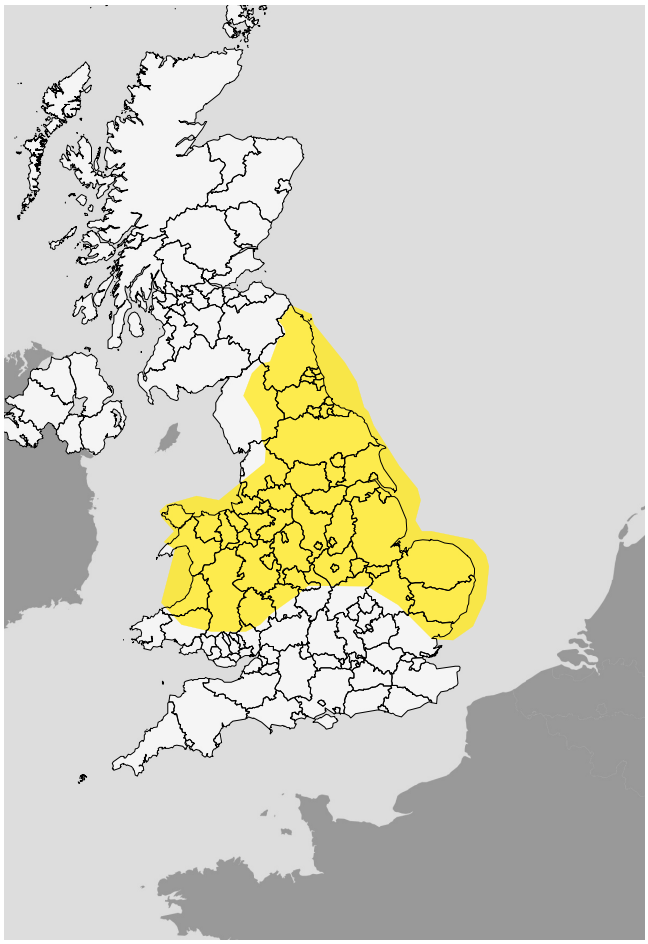
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Fri 20 Oct 2023 and
06:00 Sat 21 Oct 2023



A further spell of persistent and at times heavy rain could lead to some disruption from early Friday through to early Saturday.

What to expect

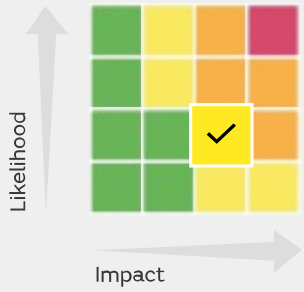
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Further heavy rain will move north and west across England and Wales during Friday, easing overnight.

25-50 mm of rain is expected to fall quite widely, though some higher ground in Northern England could see 60-80 mm. Parts of north Wales could also see in excess of 100 mm of rain through the period.

Strong easterly winds may exacerbate the impacts brought about by the heavy rain across Northern England, where gusts of 60 mph are possible near the east coast and over and to west of the Pennines.



✓ Low likelihood of medium impacts
